Big Orange rolled into Boston headed straight for Chinatown

To find the native restless and see what's going down

We hit the streets a walking, checked out a rated X

It was all about a woman and a donkey named Rex

CHORUS

Get me out of Chinatown

Get me out of Chinatown

I don't like what's going down

So get me out of Chinatown

See the big man dressed in ladies clothes, he looks really rude

I guess he forgot to look at himself when he was in the nude

Jeff and Jimmy had to laugh when the he/she lost his hair

Rolled up in the cadillac's window that left him standing there

CHORUS

I seen bigger towns than this

AND this is one town I won't miss

Just let me go, I won't leave a thing

Just my ass to kiss
