Some say love is just for sinners
I believe that is not true
'Cause when I was finished sinnin'
Love came down and gave me you
Told me how to get there
So I planned my escape
I ran through the garden
But I tripped on the gate
But I tripped on the gate

What are you doin' to me
I'm so into you
And isn't it easy to see
I'm falling for you
Yeah you
Yeah Yeah you

The world is gently falling
And the truth becomes untrue
The people we created turn thier sorry face from you
I hold you in the dark times
When things don't go my way
I'll embrace you in the sun
And fall in love again today
Fall in love again today

What are you doin' to me
I'm so into you
And isn't it easy to see
I'm falling for you
Yeah you
You,you,you
