Got a few decisions in my life that I got to deal with Picture perfect angel, I know that she was heaven sent Me being the fool I am blew it like it was my last breath
Now she's gone, gone, gone

Does anybody out there know how it feels to be alone?
When your baby's gone, when your baby's gone, when
your baby's gone
Does anybody out there know how it feels in this world
so cold?
When your baby's gone, when your baby's gone, when
your baby's gone

I need some real love in my life
I want it to last for more than one night
Cause if I had one wish and I was dead broke
Need somewhere to lay my head
I would wish for them to bring me my baby
Bring me my baby
Cause I don't want to be alone
Be alone
No, I don't wanna be alone
Alone

Got a few decisions in my life that I got to live with Many sleepless nights I cried, tried to get over it Lying to myself countless times, but the heart is hard to convince
Especially when you're wrong, wrong, wrong

Does anybody out there know how it feels to be alone?
When your baby's gone, when your baby's gone, when
your baby's gone
Does anybody out there know how it feels in this world
so cold?
When your baby's gone, when your baby's gone, when
your baby's gone

I need some real love in my life
I want it to last for more than one night
Cause if I had one wish and I was dead broke

Need somewhere to lay my head
I would wish for them to bring me my baby
Bring me my baby
Cause I don't want to be alone
Be alone
No, I don't wanna be alone
Alone

Does anybody out there know how it feels to be alone?
Does anybody out there know how it feels to be alone?
