Please Mr. Minister, a word with you
Only take a minute, sir, so don't you screw
You no fight 'gainst the rum head
You no fight 'gainst the wine head
You no fight 'gainst the cigarette smoking
Yet you know, yet you know
These things give cancer
Yet you know, yet you know
These things give cancer
Rastaman know the truth
So you can't fool the youth
Rastaman know the truth
So you can't fool the youth
What was hidden from the wise and prudent
Shall reveal to the babe and suckling
What was hidden from the wise and prudent
Shall reveal to the babe and suckling
Tell me why do you fight against the collie man?
Tell me why do you fight against the collie man?
Yet you know, yet you know
It's the healing of the nation

Yet you know, yet you know

It's the healing of the nation

Tell me why do you fight against the collie man?

Tell me why do you fight against the collie man?

Yet you know, yet you know

It's the healing of the nation

Yet you know, yet you know

It's the healing of the nation, you know

Too much partialism inna dis business y'all

God knows all of these things give cancer

[Incomprehensible]

[Incomprehensible]

Liar man, doctor man, Indian chief

Babylon Kingdom know the truth

Liar man, doctor man, Indian chief

Yet them know, yet them know

It's the healing of the nation

Yet them know, yet them know

They know it's the truth

Tell me why do you fight against the collie man

Tell me why do you fight against the collie man

Yet you know, yet you know

It's the healing of the nation

Yet them know, yet them know

It's the curing of cancer, asthma, razman

Rastaman know the truth

So you can't fool the youth

Natty dreadlocks know it's the truth

So you can't fool the youth

Yet them know, yet them know

It's the healing of the nation

Yet them know, yet them know

These things give asthma, razma, chrasma

Natty dreadlocks know, natty dreadlocks know

Natty dreadlocks know, natty dreadlocks know

Knowing the truth, the truth that collie will cure cancer,

Natty dreadlocks, natty dreadlocks knowing the truth

Babylon too much partialism
