from the stern to the bow
oh my boat is empty
yes, my heart is empty from the hole to the how from the rudder to the sail

yes, my hand is empty from the wrist to the nail from the ocean to the bay oh, the sand is clean oh, my mind is clean from the night to the day

oh, my head is empty from the neck to the brow

from the east to the west oh, the stream is long
yes, my dream is wrong
from the birth to the death
