My lifes upside down, I'm standn on my hands
Ever since she left me for another man
And I know that I can get better than that fan So I don't look back and jus stay with my plan and then I ran, towards my goal Cuz nothns holdn me back and now I know That imma succeed but imma do it w/out you Damn half the songs I made was just about you And people always told me man I doubt you... will ever make it
But now I see an opportunity n imma take it n shake it into my beat Now gravitys pulln me back onto my feet N I wanna defeat any1 who had 2nd thoughts that I meet
And imma have em runnin into their sheets And don't you peek cuz the boogeyan will get you in your sleep
And don't try to seek cuz the boogeyman will get you by your feet and pull you deep And then you'll see, I am the boogeyman,
Welcome to boogeyland, listen to this boogeyjam
And bet this aint way you planned but this is what I am
You better pray that uncle sam sends me to vietnam
Cuz this is my grand slam, ask me if I give a damn
Now I'm on fire n can't be stopped
Now I can't get higher cuz I'm on the top
And if I drop the sky will stop But you can't deny my fly hip hop A person starts ta die when they stop dreaming well I'm living forever
And the day I will stop is the day after never And this dream seem to gleam and beam and be supreme
And his team seen the mean dream's screen between and screamed
Damn lean cuisine would scream if he seen the dream they seem to see And wouldn't sleep and would drink caffeine on routine for 16 weeks Jus so he wouldn't have to see the dream of the boogeyman that they see

Well I'm the dream machine come to eat the things that even Kareem seem 2 be extreme Cuz I'm the only human being that can bring these things into your dreams

I am the boogeyman,
Welcome to boogeyland, listen to this boogeyjam
And bet this aint way you planned but this is what I am
You better pray that uncle sam sends me to vietnam
Cuz this is my grand slam, ask me if I give a damn
Now I'm on fire n can't be stopped
Now I can't get higher cuz I'm on the top
