Suns comin up
Youre comin down
Look out your window
And the city is sound
Fame and misfortune have done all they could Misunderstood it's never all good
You know
15 minutes doesnt't't mean it's gonna last forever
It comes and it goes
If you know
CHORUS:
Then maybe you'll sleep tonight
Maybe you'll dream in color
Instead of black and white
And you'll wake up happy in your darkest hour
Maybe you'll sleep tonight
You sell yourself short
Faking a laugh
Cry on my shoulder
Im watching your back
It just isn't worth the price that you pay
At the end of the day, you give it away
Hey, hey,
15 minutes doesnt't't mean it's gonna last forever
It comes and it goes
If you know
CHORUS REPEAT
BRIDGE:
And maybe you'll dream in color
And maybe see the light
And you'll wake up happy in your darkest hour
And maybe you'll sleep tonight
CHORUS REPEAT (2x)
BRIDGE
Maybe you'll sleep tonight (repeat until fades)
