"White Magic"

When I wish upon a star, will you love me when I go.
Pray for white magic (isn't it tragic), love.
Would you wait for me, and when u fall asleep, do you dream of me?
I feel you waking taking, me under, me under.
Would you stray away from me, while I'm traveling from scene to scene?
Baby don't be mistaken. Sincerely love and patience.
In the greater scheme of things will you ever know what you mean to me?
The earth is shaking taking my lover, oh lover.
Back in your arms again I will never what happened in London.
Listen to the sounds of moaning. Are you faking? did you fuck him?
Pray for, one more, full moon, to set the score.
Were all pretty far south by now, so mother don't mind
us.
We've got to make it out, for love.
