Don't try to do something already around, you envy that crowd. I feel Invincible now. The ghosts are in town, we'll chase you out now. It's been A long time coming now. You need to sit down. That one way trip is going Down. Well burn it to the ground. Day in, day out. Tell me what your trying To feel. Weigh in, weigh out. I can't stop this. I have a reason to Believe, the change in season brings us back to life.
Your stranded on the Shore. You feel left out. You scream and you shout. I'm settling the score.
You know that I'm proud, it's what were all about. When winter springs upon Us, summer's all we need. You fall.
