I'm trying to fly migrate towards a new dimension to forget wash away the blood which stains me I've seen your hands build my coffin
I've seen your mind build my end I've seen your finger point to me
I'm the sin, dig my grave I'll be your scapegoat your hands are digging while I drown let me scream while I fall crown of thorns I'm crawling in front of you your hand is still, kill me I'm marked by a crown of thorns
