Uhh, yo

[verse one]

Check em out, it's the new a5's you gotta rock em
They even put a zone in the league to try to stop him He's the answer, and the problem
You don't want it with the way that boy go to the hole and take punishment
The young boss of the cross for four quarters
And from three-point land he's all water (cash)
Matter a fact, call him the king
The way he breaks down the defense, like he's got the ball on a string
And he will blow by you fast,
Penetrate and dish it off, or go high off the glass
All you need is a pair of these, nothing else
Your hesitation is stop and pop, or be something else Trackmasters and jay to the muah, i keep an extra pair in my car
In case you wanna take it to the park High percentage, imma take it from the arc, take it from the heart
This is kiss talking to you, limited edition reebok brought em to you Uhh, even on the court we stay fly, jada and a.i., make sure you go get the a5's Even on the court we stay fly, jada and a.i., make sure you go get the a5's

Uh huh
