See the stars are shining oh so bright
As I look deep Into your eyes
Still you say the time is never right
Take a chance / Hold me tight / I'll make you realize

Tomorrow still I beg that you will come back
So I can fall into your arms
So sorrow that my dreams can't show you love
Still waiting for the right time
I know that day will come

I want you back
I need your love
I want to hold you in my arms forever

You start the car I turn around to you
You see my tears falling in my heart
My soul can't hide naked on the floor
On your knees / touch my love / We'll never break apart

Still I bum candles in the night
Hoping that the light wall never die
I feel your touch running through my veins
We are everlasting
Come take another chance

I want you back
I need your love
I want to hold you in my arms forever

I want you
I need you back

Heavens cry spirits come alive
Wanna stop all the hurt inside
I pray to you to take it all away
The pain that's left me paralyzed
A whispering word will help me survive
We are everlasting

Come take another chance
