Don't think that I don't mind you calling me
Cuz I do, cuz I do
Don't think that I don't mind you needing me
Cuz i do, cuz i do
Well the tables turned and now you find it's hard to stay away
Look into these eyes, and see what they have to say
Look who's crying now (look who's crying now)
Look who's crying now (look who's crying now)
Cold nights I spent not wanting to go on,
Missing you, missing you
Who thought that you would ever feel my pain,
Now you do, now you do
And so life goes on, and now you find you long for yesterday
Look who's crying now (look who's crying now)
Look who's crying now (look who's crying now)
Look who's crying now Well i will not change my mind if you have kept your pride
Then again you're just not worth it anyway, anyway
Now you cry, now you cry
How you cry
Now you cry, now you cry
How you cry
Now you cry, now you cry
How you cry
Now you cry, now you cry
How you cry
Look who's crying now (look who's crying now)
Look who's crying now (look who's crying now)
Look who's crying now (look who's crying now)
Look who's crying now (look who's crying now)
Look who's crying now (look who's crying now)
Look who's crying now (look who's crying now)
Now you cry, Now you cry, How you cry
Look who's crying now (look who's crying now)
Look who's crying now (look who's crying now)
