Every night when I laid in bed,
I can't control the voices in my head.
They're driving me crazy.
Been told one too many times
How I'm supposed to live my life.
Fed up with those telling me.
I can't be, what they want me to be
'cause I gotta find my answers.
I gotta let me be me!

Chorus:
I'm undecided, please don't tell me what to do,
(so undecided) with my life.
I don't know where I'll be tomorrow
'cause I'm still undecided, undecided... today.
If I could see into the future
Then maybe I could understand
Why I go through, what I go through, yah yah
Maybe then I'd realize
Why life don't go the way I plan.
Don't need to fight it, it's just another lesson.
"There's a reason for everything."
That's what some people tell me,
But that doesn't help me now 'cause I'm undecided.

Chorus
Nobody really knows what's on my mind.
All I really, really need is a little time.
I'm undecided. So undecided.
I'm undecided, please don't tell me what to do,
(so undecided) with my life.
How could I know where I'll be tomorrow,
If I'm still undecided today.
I don't know where I'll be tomorrow
'cause I'm still undecided, and it's ok.
I'm still undecided, I'm gonna find my way.
I'm still undecided, undecided... today.
