Chorus

Yall Niggas is Liars

You need to stop watching The Wire

Cause you never been through the fire

Im posted on this block until i retire

Cause Homie I Stay Ten Toes Down

Yo me i tear the town up

Pull the 40s out, put the pounds up

Whenever the regulators mound up

Started from the ground up

Couple years later im a millionaire, Now What Still get em now but

Im just more discrete about it

If i get indited all you gonna do is read about it

Somebody Gonna bleed about it

Yea these niggas know he about it

I never get out of my character tho, Im always a G about it

Im in the Streets where there no rules everybodys so cool

til u take a leak on they protools and i aint been innocence since

I planted my ten toes down in the cement

You can get em long as you say u aint get em from kiss

Im always in some shit

I run the block like i got a permit

If u listenin than u heard much diffrent than these nerd

i was raised from the kitchen to the curb
