(Conversation)

Girl, guess who was over here today askin' all these questions about you?

Who, girl?

I don't know, personal stuff, too.

He's really into you. Yeah, he is, girl.

I don't know why.

That's messed up.

Like what? Well, you know, like:

Do you love him?

Do you care?

Who you went out with?

What you talked about with other guys, and stuff.

No, not again, not a-gain!

I told him.

(Singing)

You're wonderin' if I care about you.

Is there some cause that I should doubt you, woaaaa?

O, I can see, boy, that you don't know me very well, uh-uh.

You're so unsure.

And you run here and there to ask my feelings.

Friends only, they, they can't say, really.

No, no, no, no, don't ask my neighbor [Don't ask my neighbor].

Don't [never] ask the friends I hang around, uh-uh.

Don't be afraid to come to me [to come to me].

Don't ask my neighbor. [No, no, come to me].

Don't be afraid of what you see [what you see].

You'll find I love you [O, I love you. Come on.]

Come to me. Don't be afraid. Hey.

You ask all my friends.

You find us in, boy.

You don't understand.

You think I'm changing, O aah.

Don't ask my neighbor [don't ask my neighbor].

Don't [never] ask the friends I hang around, uh-uh.

Don't be afraid [never] to come to me. Come to me.

Don't ask my neighbor. [Come on, no, no, come on and come on].
Come to me. Don't be afraid of what you see [what you see].
You'll find I love you. Ooo oo oo oo Come to me. [Come on.]
Don't be afraid.
Hey.

O, baby, oooo, oo, oo.
Don't ask my neighbor [neighbor].
Come to me.
Don't be afraid of what you see, you'll find I love you.
Boy, you know you can ask me anything.
Come to me. Don't be afraid.
Don't go runnin' to my neighbors.
No, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no.
Come to me. Don't be afraid of what you see.
Don't be afraid.
You know I love you.
You've got to come me to me.
You've got to come me to me.
Hey.
I'll be right here for you.
Come to me. Don't be afraid of what you see.
Oooooo, you'll find I love you.
I love you, boy.
