Put me down make me frown you won the crown. But was it worth it. you said You loved me but you lied. what if I died would you sie?
Now it's time to Say byeee. You were right I wish I had gave you ligggghhht! And I could Never hold you tight. I hate this fight! Kissing you on the lips is what I Really miss. But you love her more then me. Cannn it beee? I've been moving On, lost the guy won the game. I was your number one till now. So take a Bow right nowww. This was all the same when you left. I guess she was Worth it and she lit your fire. I miss the smell of you.
