Once I loved someone so deep
It hurt to leave his side
He was wonderful, loveable,
He was truly just so beautiful
I feel so blessed he came my way

Sugar sweet, my sugar high
Sweetest taste I'll ever try
Your love is what I can't deny,
I love you, I love you, I love you
Sugar sweet, I've realized,
Just one look into your eyes
Slowly gets me hypnotized
I love you, I love you, I love you

His love was far beyond wealth and gold
So much from one would I learn
He was the delicate morning rain
That fell to wash away my pain
And bring me warmth in return
He was magical, mystical,
Simply irresistible
This love I can't convey
Oh, so wonderful, loveable
He was truly just so beautiful
I feel so blessed he came my way

Sugar sweet, my sugar high,
Sweetest taste I'll ever try
Your love is what I can't deny
I love you, I love you, I love you
Sugar sweet, I've realized
Just one look into your eyes
Slowly gets me hypnotized

I love you, I love you , I love you

Your love feels so amazing
Never thought I would have found you, baby
To hold you, just to be near you
I love you, I love you, I love you

Sugar sweet, my sugar high,
Sweetest taste I'll ever try
Your love is what I can't deny
I love you, I love you, I love you

Oh, so wonderful, loveable
He was truly just so beautiful,
So beautiful

Sugar sweet, my sugar high,
Sweetest taste I'll ever try
Your love is what I can't deny
I love you, I love you, I love you
Sugar sweet, I've realized
Just one look into your eyes
Slowly gets me hypnotized
I love you, I love you , I love you

Your love feels so amazing
Never thought I would have found you, baby
To hold you, just to be near you
I love you, I love you, I love you

Sugar sweet, my sugar high,
Sweetest taste I'll ever try
Your love is what I can't deny
I love you, I love you, I love you
