Spare a thought or two Cause I know their heavy
keep them safe for you
And I'll hold it steady
Don't know what to do,
Who really does
Just let me pull it through
Let me sink down with you

No more tears now
No looking back now
No regrets, and no apologies
Take my hand now
Do what I can, to help you stay

We can run away,
we can run away
Until their faces fade to grey
We can run away
Till we find a better way

We can run away,
We can run away
Until their faces fade to grey
We can run away
Till we find a better way

Waiting for the rain
Little desert flower
Wash away your shame
In my Ivory Tower
Don't know who to blame
For What you've become
For everything you did
And everything you gave up

Doesn't matter now
No looking back now
No regrets, and no appologies
Take my hand now
Do what I can, to help you stay

We can run away,
we can run away
Until their faces fade to grey
We can run away
Till we find a better way

We Can run away,
we can run away
Until their faces fade to grey
We can run away
Till we find a better way

Have had
Have you had enough
Holding on and giving up yeah
Money talks and desperation reeks
Yeah
Well I'm tired of being on my knees
Tired trying to please

We Can run away,
we can run away
Until their faces fade to grey
We can run away
Till we find a better way

We Can run away,
We can run away
Until their faces fade to grey
We can run away
Till we find a better way

We can runaway

We Can run away,
we can run away
Until their faces fade to grey
We can run away
Till we find a better way

Run away
Run away
