Time folds into time generations unending starts blink out of life as new ones are born worlds colliding in hatred will there be peace in this universe?
Can the questions of life be answered without time?

In a flash of a moment all things will change in the blink of an eye we hardly notice how they rearrange
overflowed with emotions sometimes control the will of us all is so strong it's hard to let it go, feel the flow, let it be so that which is made in the heavens comes from violent reaction crashing, burning, crushing and breaking apart glowing with fire and fury eruptions fracture and start to burn Leaving a brilliant planet that we see as a star

In a flash of a moment all things will change
overflowed with emotions sometimes control
go, feel the flow, let it be so

Constantly under pressure gravity pulling and straining this cause and effects brings forth the finest gems what can be gained by this madness that has made us what we are today?
the answer may lay inside man's universe within

In a flash of a moment all things will change
overflowed with emotions sometimes control
the will of us all is so strong it's hard to let it go, feel the flow, let it be so

Burning on forever starlight's flicker and glow bringing light to us in the darkest of times a thing of beauty and wonder giving direction and reference of time eternity held its glow raining on us all

In a flash of a moment all things will change
overflowed with emotions sometimes control
the will of us all is so strong it's hard to let it go, feel the flow, let it be so
