It's real funny baby How one day everything's all good and then the next Your world comes crumbling down

Well it's funny how, it's funny how rain drops they fall (they fall)
Everything's right
It's funny how everything goes wrong (go wrong)
You'll be a friend
It's funny how everyone's gone (they're gone)
It's funny how, it's funny how

Not to long ago, when I need you You were nowhere, I couldn't find you but now you want me, I don't wanna be nowhere that you can see me So if you ever come my way turn and walk away

It's funny how, it's funny how
rain drops they fall (they fall)
Everything's right
It's funny how
everything goes wrong (go wrong)
You'll be a friend
It's funny how
everyone's gone (they're gone)
It's funny how, it's funny how

See you always so dear to me but then things change
You shade away

I need to know why they changed and why they couldn't stay the same Somebody take away the rain and give me back my sunny days

rain drops they fall (they fall)
Everything's right
It's funny how
everything goes wrong (go wrong)
You'll be a friend
It's funny how everyone's gone (their gone)
It's funny how, it's funny how

It's funny how when you need your friends their gone It's funny how suddenly things turned wrong
It's funny how, it's funny how Things never go your way

It's funny how, it's funny how
rain drops they fall (they fall)
Everything's right
It's funny how
everything goes wrong (go wrong)
You'll be a friend
It's funny how
everyone's gone (their gone)
It's funny how, it's funny how

Take the rain away
Give me back my sunny days

[repeat to fade]
