It's like Jordan and Pippen
Shaq and Kobe
Ike and Tina
Now I ain't trynna beat you baby

It's like Sonny and Cher
Donnie and Marie girl
I just want you to know
Behind every good man there is a woman

We got to be a team
Just me and you girl
Like Jerry and Joe
Going for the Superbowl, we tryin' to win girl

In order to win
There's got to be a leader
And that's me
But I don't mind sharin' the light with you girl

Baby I'm the head of this household
My love for you is worth it's weight in gold
Every player on the team has to play their role
Everything I do is all for you

I do it 'cause I'm the head of this household
My love is worth it's weight in gold
Every player on the team has to play their role
Everything I do, I do 'cause I'm the head of this household

It's like Puff and no Biggie
Or a car with no gas, girl
I would never just quit
Without you I run last, girl

See we a family
Like Huxtables on Brandys
I just want you to know
Behind every good man there is a good woman

Hope you prayin' for me

I know you waitin' on me, girl
Just wait and see
Where we'll be in about two or three or four years, girl

You're the sweet of my tea
And I hope you feel me
Baby, why don't you stay with me?
We got such a good family

Baby I'm the head of this household
My love for you is worth it's weight in gold
Every player on the team has to play their role
Everything I do is all for you

I do it 'cause I'm the head of this household
My love is worth it's weight in gold
Every player on the team has to play their role
Everything I do, I do 'cause I'm the head of this household

From the house to the car to the bank accounts
I do all of that, everything
No matter what you need
Those things I'll bring in all of that

I've been the backbone
All this time in this relationship
You need that, don't even trip
That's the way I kick it, oh

All my folks be sayin'
I'm stupid for that
They just jealous of you
'Cause I don't be around like that
I had always said if I find a girl
I'ma treat her right, day or night

Baby I'm the head of this household
My love for you is worth it's weight in gold
Every player on the team has to play their role
Everything I do, I do it 'cause I'm the head of this household

My love is worth it's weight in gold
Every player on the team has to play their role
Everything I do, I do 'cause I'm the head of this household

Make me say
Whoa whoa baby yeah
I need you baby

And you need me too
Whoa whoa whoa

Baby I'm the head of this household
My love for you is worth it's weight in gold
Every player on the team has to play their role
Everything I do, I do it 'cause I'm the head of this household

My love is worth it's weight in gold
Every player on the team has to play their role
Everything I do, I do 'cause I'm the head of this household
