So So Def
Remix
Je yall
Run-DMC
To da beat yall
Ahha ahha
And me yall know my name
Come on
See first of all
I know these so called playas wouldn't tell ya this
But I'ma be real and say what's on my heart
Let's take this chance and make this love feel relevant
Didn't cha know I loved ya from the start? (yeah)
When I think about
All the years we put in this relationship
Who knew we'd make it this far?
When I think about
Where would I be if we were to just fall apart
And I can't stand the thought of losin' you

Meet me at the altar
In your white dress
We ain't gettin' no younger
We might as well do it
Been feeling you all the while girl
I must confess
Girl let's just get married,
I just wanna get married

Meet me at the altar
In your white dress
We ain't gettin' no younger
So you might as well do it (yeah)
Been feelin' you all the while girl
I must confess
Let's get married
Baby let's get married

Said I done it all
And frankly girl I'm tired of this emptiness
I wanna come home to you and only you

'Cause making love to just anyone ain't happening
I just gotta be with you

Do you think about
Us finishing something we started so long ago?
I wanna give you my all
Do you think about
Maybe us havin' some babies?
Come on won't you be my lady?

Forever girl...

What's going on across the seas
It ain't nothin'
I ain't frontin'
Shorty comin' with me
Now I done already gave you the keys to tha Range
And your last name 'bout to change
Now you Mrs. Simmons
Gotta a betta livin'
What a difference the reverend made
I used to be the snake type
Hangin' out late night
Girl you made me
Change my life
Ever since you met me
Keys to the Bently
Now they call you the preacher's wife
I'm the type of guy that Take you out and buy that
Ring with the rock that'll
Break your arm
Playa won't try dat
Now you can't deny that
Triple dub rev to the run dot com

Meet me at the altar
In your white dress
We might as well do it
I must confess

Meet me at the altar
In your white dress
We might as well do it
I must confess

Let's get married

All I want you to do
Is meet me at the altar
In your white dress
We might as well do it
I must confess

Meet me at the altar
In your white dress
We might as well do it
I must confess
Let's get married
Let's get married baby

Baby baby baby baby baby baby

All I want you to do
Meet me at the altar
In your white dress
We might as well do it Been feelin' you all the while girl
I must confess Girl let's just get married I just wanna get married
