See first of all (Yeah)
I know these so-called playa'z wouldn't tell you this (What?)
But I'm go be real and say what's on my heart (Yeah)
Let's take this chance and make this love feel relevant
Didn't you know I loved her from the start? (Yo) Yeah.....

When I think about (Uh-huh, huh)
All these years we put in this relationship (Yeah)
Who'll knew we'd make it this far?
Then I think about (Uh-huh)
Where would I be if we were just to fall apart?
And I can't stand the thought of leaving you...

Meet me at the altar in your white dress(Uh-huh)
We ain't gettin' no younger we might as well do it you I must been feeling you all the while girl i must confess
girl let's just get married
I just wanna get married

Meet me at the altar in your white dress We ain't gettin'
no younger we might as well do it
Been feeling all the while girl I must confess girl Let's get married
i just wanna get married

Said I done it all but frankly girl I'm tired of this emptiness I wanna come home to you and only

you{Why?}
Cause making love to anyone ain't happenin'
I just gotta be with you

I think about
Us finishin' somethin' we started so long ago?
I wanna give you my heart
Do you think about Maybe us having some babies?
C'mon won't you be my lady?
Forever girl....

Run-DMC:
What's goin' on across the sea?
It ain't nuthin', I ain't frontin'
Shorty coming wit' me
Now I done already gave you the keys to the Range
And your last name 'bout to change
Now you Mrs. Simons
Got a better livin'
What a dif-rence Rev Run made
I use to be the snake type
Hangin' out late night
Girl you done made me change my life
Ever since you met me
Keys to the Bentley
Now they call you the preacher's wife
I'm the type of guy that
Take you out and buy that
Ring with the rock that'll break your arm
Playaz won't try that
Now you can't deny that
Triple dub Rev to the Run dot com

Jagged Edge:
Oohhhhhh.....
Meet me at the altar in your white dress We ain't gettin'
no younger girl we might as well do it
been feeling you all the while girl I must confess
Girl let's just get married I just wanna get married
(Uh-huh,uh-huh, oh)

Meet me at the altar in your white dress
We ain't gettin' no younger we might as well do it (Y'all knew we came to dance)
been feeling you all the while girl I must confess
Girl let's just get married
I just wanna get married
All I want you to do is

Meet at the altar in your white dress (Yeah, yeah, yeah...)(Uh-huh)

We ain't gettin' no younger we might as well do it
(If you 25 and older, you gotta turn this up)
Been feeling you all the while girl I must confess
(If you 18 to 21, you gotta turn this up) (Yeah, yeah)
Girl let's just get married
I just wanna get married

Yeahhh.....

Meet me at the altar in your white dress (Oh)
We ain't gettin' no younger we might as well do it
(Whoa)(We might as well do it)
Been feeling you all the while girl I must confess

Let's get married
Let's get married baby
Let's get married baby

Meet me at the altar in your white dress (Ohhhhhh...)
We ain't gettin' no younger we might as well do it
(Yeahhh...)
Been feeling you all the while girl I must confess
Girl let's just get married
I just wanna get married
