Lights out,
Sucker punch, struck out.
Caught a love wave,
Rode it then I wiped out.
Two ships just passing in the night now,
Offshore, looking for a light house.
Reveal you said that it was painless,
Down and out drowning in a sea of my anguish
Funny, you always said hope floats.
Comprehended but I can't cope
So I

Gotta find my way back, way back to you baby.
Tryna find my way back, way back to you baby.
Gotta find my way back, way back to you, to us, to love.

Man down, my heart's in your hand now.
Hid your love under an X in the sand now.
No clue, no map, damn.
So I'm digging til I end up in japan now.

Reveal you said that it was painless,
Down and out drowning in a sea of my anguish
Funny, you always said hope floats.
Comprehended but I can't cope
So I

Gotta find my way back, way back to you baby.
Tryna find my way back, way back to you baby.
Gotta find my way back, way back, to you, to us, to love.

We got lost lines got crossed
And the light turned to static baby.
And then I jumped ship got caught up in the current
And it carried both of us away
We were so much better
When we were together
And I just can't let you slip away.

Gotta find my way back, way back to you baby.

Tryna find my way back, way back to you baby.
Gotta find my way back, way back, to you, to us, to love.
