I woke up on top of the world today
Holding her hand she don't mind me leading the way
As long as I never let her fall
She wouldn't have to pull away.
Gypsy woman can you read my palm
Is my love line broken or is it long
Small is yours is inside of mine
Words cannot define how it feels to be in love.

My finger tips touch you soft hair
Then my two lips kissed truer then this
I doubt that I find a love of this kind.
'Cause when I hold your hand
I've got the whole world in my hand
Ever since the day you came across my path,
Oh baby, that was the plan.
What else could a man with all love his heart could stand
Ever want for if the riches all around the land don't compare to the woman he has?
I've got the whole world in my hand

And here we stand the two of us face to face
Staring at each other
Me smiling, you crying away.
So long ago we both made plans to be together on this day
And with those two words I vow to be
Your protector, providing unconditionally
Oh, and never let go of your hand
You are my destiny

My finger tips touch you soft hair
My two lips kissed truer then this
I doubt that I find a love of this kind.
'Cause when I hold your hand
I've got the whole world in my hand
Ever since the day you came across my path
Oh baby that was the plan.
What else could a man with all love his heart could

Ever want for if the riches all around the land don't
compare to the woman he has?
I've got the whole world in my hand

Beautiful in every way
Promise not to let my heart ever stray
To give you peace of mind and never lie
And baby if you ever cry
Every tear I'll drown in
I am grateful and I'm reminded That I see clear more precious than any diamond
'Cause something way bigger than us binds us Together we are classic and timeless
'Cause when I hold your hand
