"This Prayer"

Every song I sing for you , I sing for you Jah
Cause only you Jah Jah can hear this prayer, my prayer

Jah know the path of the righteous man,
But the ungodly can't prevail
Jah set his King on holy Mt. Zion
I rest my head in peace like a lion
A son in his kingly character
Cause only Jah can hear this my prayer

A chapter a day keep the devil away
A chapter a day will keep Satan away

Every man and woman in this world is living for a reason
So rise up and shine in Jah heights for the beauty of creation
Every man and woman in this world got so much love to give
So why not overcome every crisis and learn to forgive
A son was born in his kingly character
Cause only Jah can hear this my prayer
