My-my-my-my My-my-my-my my-my-my-my-my-my-my-my My baby, my baby, my baby
What a lady, girl!
Uh, uh, uh!

You're like a wine, you get better with time Got your Nia Long on, this your song, you're so fine from everything that you wear, your kind of beauty is rare
And I swear you get better looking with every year!
At your sexual peak, your full figure physique Young girl, can't compete' come cook a little something to eat,
Baby, and since we're in the kitchen, girl let me get that muffin
You look better the older you get!
Benjamin Button!

Chorus:

I can't believe with time, girl you're getting better Looking like a picture of before and after your story gets more pretty every chapter gettin more attractive, age ain't a factor!
Young one that I got I'm bout to leave her Cause berries sitting on a vine with time are sweeter
If I could be your man, girl, you won't want for nothing
You look better the older you get!
Benjamin Button!

You really need to let me in your world, girl
What a proud girl!
No cougar you're still a kitten, hidden You're working out, girl, shut your mouth, you're looking thicker
You know how to hold your liquor Nigga show me your ID, I get the picture
I propose a toast, players raise your glass
For my Vivica Fox's 'and my Stacy dash's Ladies, it's Thanksgiving and I'm about to eat that stuffing

You look better the older you get!
Benjamin Button!

Chorus:

I can't believe with time, girl you're getting better
Looking like a picture of before and after
your story gets more pretty every chapter
more and more attractive, age ain't a factor!
Young one that I got I'm bout to leave her
Cause berries sitting on a vine with time are sweeter
If I could be your man, you'll never want for nothing
You look better the older you get!
Benjamin Button!

Effortless make it look so easy, Cajun spiced seasoned, sexy for no reason, appetite, pleasing nuff to sink my teeth in, if I told them how good your love was they wouldn't believe me.

Chorus: (x2)

I can't believe with time, girl you're getting better
Looking like a picture of before and after
your story gets more pretty every chapter
more and more attractive, age ain't a factor!
Young one that I got I'm bout to leave her
Cause, berries sitting on a vine with time are sweeter
If I could be your man, you'd never want for nothing
You look better the older you get!
Benjamin Buttons!
