Yea Yea
I choose you baby
Oh Oh Oh Oh I choose you baby
Yea

[Verse 1:]
I can push that whip off the showcase floor
Put tv screens in the headrest door
Something a little more mature
Preparing for the future
Put the down on something
With a fence, a roof, and a door
Or the jewelry store
A pinky ring or a ring for her (and)
Cherish her forever more
What could be better
Something for myself
Or for my baby

[Pre Hook:]
All the places I can be
And people I can see
You're the only one for me
The decision was easy to make
I choose you over everything

[Hook:]
And I
Said I just wanna love my baby
I thank the heavens for the gift he gave me
Oh oh oh and I just wanna say
Oh and I...
There ain't a thing I would'nt do for you
Change my life so I could live it for you
Oh-oh

[Verse 2:]
Camouflaged it from the corner stores
Holding the dice tryna get a little more
Or something more secure
In the house cuddled up on the couch

With the woman I adore
Or in the streets steady breaking the law
Or creeping with my ex trying not to get caught
Wifing you
Ready to die for you
Oh, yea, that's all I wanna do

[Pre Hook:]
All the places I can be
And people I can see
You're the only one for me
The decision was easy to make
I choose you over everything

[Hook:]
And I just wanna love my baby
I thank the heavens for the gift he gave me
Oh and I just wanna say
And I...
There ain't a thing I would'nt do for you
Change my life so I could live it for you
Oh-oh

[Bridge:]
Out of all the things that I been through
I'd rather be kicking it with my boo
When the pillows not enough
And there's no one to cuff
I hit her up and she comes through
Can't no other chick compare to her
She can pull it off rockin' Timbs and a fur
She my class ghetto girl
And I would'nt give her up for the world

[Repeat Hook Until End]
