The evil one we can defeat him. Our mission make him dead and gone.
One from each religion assembled to take him on. They would go to the ends of the earth and below to end the game and kill the Devil Deception our greatest weapon the priest in black has joined the cause hell betray his master and then we will strike without pause.
Midnight all the power of light well fool the master of lies and kill the Devil [repeat]

Kill Kill the devil. The game was on midnight approaching the dark disciple made the call. The formless one took shape the sight of him left us in awe

*[Pre-chorus]
Now that we've got you you'll die here today. When hell freezes over you will stand in my way. Come hell or high water to rest you will lay. When you deal with the devil there will be hell to pay. Blinding light came! The evil is finally gone the impossible seemingly done. Still we must save ourselves from the evil that comes from below. The darkness still lingers within us all You've got to kill the Devil!*
