Could carry on for miles
Now I swear it's all a dream
I build up piece by piece
All the things I say would be
Everything begins to stare
As if I'm not suppose to be hear
Should know by now
What's set in motion's
Got to be clear

Slow it down, enough to get away
I gotta keep going, it seems my mind is exploding
Can you hear the sound, enough to speed it up go
Keep going, keep going, going
Get going, get going, going

The minefield, a minefield, I'm getting lost
Look over my shoulder, see what's getting closer
This is a minefield, a minefield I realize
Everywhere I walk, don't wanna set it off
Set it off

If I lose my grip
Tell me you will be right there
I couldn't bare witness to this
Ugly infliction
Our plan is in focus
Don't you wanna throw this?
Gotta catch me some air
We set it off

Slow it down, enough to get away
I gotta keep going, it seems my mind is exploding
Can you hear the sound, enough to speed it up go
Keep going, keep going, going
Get going, get going, going

The minefield, a minefield, I'm getting lost
Look over my shoulder, see what's getting closer
This is a minefield, a minefield I realize
Everywhere I walk, don't wanna set it off

Set it off

In a maze it seems we can't get off so easily, so easily
In a maze it seems we can't get off all that lightly
What was lightly? nothing but our feet
Live what we can't defeat
What is the question, and what is the lesson

The minefield, a minefield, I'm getting lost
Look over my shoulder, see what's getting closer
This is a minefield, a minefield I realize
Everywhere I walk, don't wanna set it off
Set it off

Don't wanna set it off, set it off...
