It's constantly on my mind as I clear my phlegm
Explain to you and them how life hits deep end
Sinking in a dream nigga I'm barely a float
On "Oceans Eleven" nothing but a 2ply boat
My life's a hustle, plot, all a scheme
However legal, still my aim is cream
You got a bullet proof vest my flow's two in your head
Showing you face cards until the dealer is dead
In the dark I'm up the block handling rocks
With pull shots, two steps from drug spots
That's a plague in my community immunity's bought
Either snap ankles, spit flows or play your part
I choose yankin' niggaz and hittin' them J's
Cuz crime pays but only talent can take you away
Niggaz like "wake up dawg that's all a dream"
I looked that Devil in the face and called his fire steam
