[Verse 1]

Something has changed within
A sudden shift in the wind
It started out yesterday
What can I say?
Said, I'm gathering everything
Even though it don't cost a thing
But it's all with what ya bring
What I bring yeah

[Pre-chorus]

Temper struck the side of me
Fever rushed to get to my heart
I can't let you walk away
Losing what I had to lose
Proving what I had from the start
I can't let this go today

[Chorus]

What we had before this
They still call it love
So don't you ever take my love for granted
Granted, you are the one
I can't keep playing these games
But it fits you like a glove
I should take your love for granted
Granted, you are the one
Oh, oh-oh, oh
Oh, oh-oh, oh
Oh, oh-oh, oh
Bah, bah, bah

[Verse 2]

I shouldn't even stress a thing
Thank god I don't have any ring
I would of through away everything I still have (I still have whoa, oh)
Second up to the count
Look where it got us now
And I knew without a doubt
I'd be out... whoa

[Pre-chorus]

Temper struck the side of me
Fever rushed to get to my heart
I can't let you walk away
Losing what I had to lose
Proving what I had from the start
I can't let this go today

[Chorus]

What we had before this
They still call it love
So don't you ever take my love for granted
Granted, you are the one
I can't keep playing these games
But it fits you like a glove
I should take your love for granted
Granted, you are the one

[Bridge]

I know there's a reason behind your mystery
I figured you see me in your dreams
Realize thing's ain't what they seem
Don't you ever look back (I know)
I've learned that I'm never on track (so slow)
When the memories come and go
Lose the place that you call home

[Chorus]

What we had before this
They still call it love
So don't you ever take my love for granted
Granted, you are the one
I can't keep playing these games
But it fits you like a glove
I should take your love for granted
Granted, you are the one

Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah
I should take your love for granted
Take your love for granted...
