[Verse 1]

You say you didn't need me
And now you're wondering
Why it is I'm sick of seeing your face
You say that all the things we
Did together was a way
To get your head out your mistakes
Now I have a conclusion
That by the time you realize
I'll be something in your eyes
I'll be close to you... yeah ooh

[Hook]

There's no turning back
No more wanting more
No more gaining, maintaining
It's not moving, I'm not using
It's abusing me...
(Don't stop now)
'Cause it's entertaining to
(Watch you down)
Knowing that there is no
(Way, no how)
For you to ever meet the way it should
(So I decided not to make that of what shouldn't be)

[Chorus]

If something is left, then put it to the test
Holding out your best is better than the rest
It's no contest, 'cause what you decided
Is gonna be the last one
And let the draining hang loose
Just drain it out, put it to good use
And let it fade out
Then move your pace right through the way
Make your way now
Make your way now

[Verse 2]

I get this crazy feeling
That what I'm doing is not what
You wanted me to do

But I don't take it so lightly
I replace myself with someone else
So you could be pleased
Now I have a conclusion
That by the time you realize
I'm not by your side
Ooh, I will be close to you, yeah

[Hook]

There's no turning back
No more wanting more
No more gaining, maintaining
It's not moving, I'm not using
It's abusing me...
(Don't stop now)
'Cause it's entertaining to
(Watch you down)
Knowing that there is no
(Way, no how)
For you to ever meet the way it should
(So I decided not to make that of what shouldn't be)

[Chorus]

If something is left, then put it to the test
Holding out your best is better than the rest
It's no contest, 'cause what you decided
Is gonna be the last one
And let the draining hang loose
Just drain it out, put it to good use
And let it fade out
Then move your pace right through the way
Make your way now
Make your way now

[Bridge]

Make your way now (x8)
(Ooh...)
The time will be, for you and me
To go away together
But that is gone, not to prolong
Inside, this is what I want to be

[Chorus]

If something is left, then put it to the test
Holding out your best is better than the rest
It's no contest, 'cause what you decided
Is gonna be the last one
And let the draining hang loose
Just drain it out, put it to good use
And let it fade out
Then move your pace right through the way

Make your way now
Make your way now
