This is all you wanted
It's what I wanted too
But don't get too comfortable
To me, it's nothing new Everything you're searching for
You'll find just know
That I was finding you...
Ooh yeah, ooh yeah

Give it a hit, try to quit
But I know who you are
Won't get far...
Moving away that's what I hate
But I know who you are...
Meet me tonight

Turn off the lights
That's when I want you closer
No light, brings on one sight
That's when I feel alright
Give up your life
No, this is not a fair fight
Before morning breaks the dawn
It breaks the dawn

I am losing blood
(Blood from our loving)
And it keeps running
Takes me time to get to you
Right before I shift
You'll find to know that
I was standing right behind you
Yeah, yeah...

Give it a hit, try to quit
But I know who you are
Won't get far...
Moving away that's what I hate
But I know who you are...
Meet me tonight

Turn off the lights

That's when I want you closer
No light, brings on one sight
That's when I feel alright
Give up your life
No, this is not a fair fight
Before morning breaks the dawn
It breaks the dawn

You're exactly all it is I need
So why do you get away from me
Couldn't tell you how I spend my time
Couldn't wait to drop the line
Focused on that determination
Give you all mean education
Did you learn that lesson right?
So I could carry out the night

Turn off the lights
That's when I want you closer
No light, brings on one sight
That's when I feel alright
Give up your life
No, this is not a fair fight
Before morning breaks the dawn
It breaks the dawn
Turn off the lights
That's when I want you closer
No light, brings on one sight
That's when I feel alright
Give up your life
No, this is not a fair fight
Before morning breaks the dawn
Morning breaks
