I am just over your shoulder baby
You make me feel colder like you're turning away

Would you just stop for a second
I'm asking you a question about who you want in your life
In your in your in your life
I'm about to change your pretty mind
I'm about to change your pretty life

You can cause your eyes burn
Do you taste my breath
Hear my voice drowned in
You Feel my skin on your back

Hey I see you falling
And On your knees you're crawling
Back.. back to me
In your in your in your life
I'm about to change your pretty mind
I'm about to change your pretty life

Are you ready? There's no stopping time
Cuz cuz cuz cuz cuz
You could be the reason I love
You could be the reason I love
You could be the reason I cry
You could you could you could you could

I'm about to change your pretty life
I'm about to change your pretty life
I can see the fear that's in your eyes
Are you ready? There's no stopping time
You could be the reason I love
You could be the reason I cry
You could you could you could be the reason why
