Here I lie right underneath
Do you notice me?
I pray the lord my soul to Keep
Cuz it's safe with me.
But if there comes a miracle
Don't let me
Go...
Cuz my whole life doesn't have a line
To lose it's bind

I keep my
Faith... keep my faith
They dream away, they dream away

Haven't lost all
Your focus
Never so hopeless
Use all of your strength left
Bring all of what
Comes next

What isn't fair, you are to provide
So that I survive
And you
Would care who was left behind
Or by side...
And if I fall would you life me
Up?
Pick me up?
Cuz my whole life has made it to it's prime
And you give me
Time

Faith... keep my faith
They dream away, they dream away

Haven't
Lost all your focus
Never so hopeless
Use all of your strength left
Bring

All of what comes next
You'll make it tomorrow
I know there is sorrow
I'll
Give you my courage
After all you are worth it

And if I couldn't be
All
That is made of me
I know I feel that there's a way
And all that's left to Die
What can I save?
What can I get to stay?

Haven't lost all your Focus
Never so hopeless
Use all of your strength left
Bring all of what
Comes next
You'll make it tomorrow
I know there is sorrow
I'll give you my Courage
After all you are worth it

(Ooh) (yeah)...
