You don't need to lie, you talk through your eyes, by the way you look at me I see. I've been here before, I know how it goes, I am the antidote to your lost cause.
Open up your mind and let me see inside. There's no room to hide behind the lines. I'm separated and I'm jaded, paranoia make some room.Ãçâ,¬Â” Ãçâ,¬Â”Hand over the torch what did you do it for?

You were never that good you always wanted more, I'm here to clean the mess you made. (No I don't want to talk about it) And in your innocence your strength was lost, faithless devotion at a high cost and now what do you get for all your sacrifice.Ãçâ,¬Â”
