Oh---

Oh yeah---

Alright---

VERSE ONE:

Don't ever wait to find what you've been looking for Don't ever hide your light behind a closing door, no--- Don't give up the fight to find a way to realize your dreams

Don't you know, you can be anything that you want to be, oh yeah---

CHORUS:

You can be a star shining out in the darkness
You can be a fire blazing into the cold
You can be a voice calling out in the silence
You can be as bright as the morning sun
You can be the blue sky after the gray
You can drive the clouds of fear away
You can bring the healing to a world that's come undone

Don't you know, you can be the one

You know that you can be the one

Come on---

Oh yeah---

VERSE TWO:

Don't ever miss a chance to find what the future holds
'Cause I can see a passion burning in your eyes
I know there's a God who's up in heaven looking down
And we all play a part in a master plan of grand design, yeah---

(repeat chorus x2)

You can be the one, yeah---
