(Verse)

I said fuck everything that they told ya
I said fuck everything that you heard oh
'Cause it's a new year, it's a new day,
It's a new life, it's a new me
And I know that sounds so cliché
But who'da thought? Asked you anyway
'Cause you don't know me, what I've been through, where I came from
They don't hear you
You don't know me, what I've been through, where I came from, no
I done have a homeless guy killed a few times
I can't believe this man want me dead now
But I'm swerving, I'm swerving
Woa, swerving
Shout out to my ex
That half a bottle's gotta last a lifetime
Now I done have a spoon full of black eyed peas
So cheers to the, cheers to the,

(Chorus)

Cheers to the
New money, new money
It's coming my way ay ay ay
It used to be my money what's funny, my credit
wouldn't get it
Everybody said I wouldn't make it
Cheers to the new money ay ay

(Verse)

But I just leave my color on creed
I tell them golden the dentist
Yea, I'm talking new money shit, new money shit
New money shit, new money shit
And all the ones that sayin change
Be the ones that didn't grow wit ya
So go on talkin new money shit, new money shit
New money shit, new money shit
And the gun is tryina bring you down
But that side you knew you're off of the ground

So go ahead and fly, fly oh fly, fly
They aks how I'm a vanity slave
When my double grand grannies were slaves
But I ball for the garden, the entity
To share it all with my ghetto peeps

(Chorus)

Cheers to the
New money, new money
It's coming my way ay ay ay
It used to be my money what's funny, my credit
wouldn't get it
Everybody said I wouldn't make it
Cheers to the new money ay ay

(Outro)

I do that am drag (uh uh)
I do that am drag (uh uh)
That's my new money life
