I can't move on
Should I let go
It's always better when you're there
But you've moved on
And let go
I'm sure it's better when you're there
It's always better when you're there

Cause Graceland's falling
And you're still calling
You make me want to fly
And you're my saviour
My favorite flavor
Take me home tonight
Cause Graceland's gone tonight
It's gone tonight

And memories of my better days
Of a world I never knew
Sweet symphonies
You were my better days
You're the world I never knew

You're the world I never knew

Cause Graceland's falling
And you're still calling
You make me want to fly
And you're my saviour
My favorite flavor
Take me home tonight

You were my better days
You were my symphony
You were my better days, better days, better days
You were my symphony

Graceland's falling
And you're still calling
You make me want to fly
And you're my saviour
My favorite flavor

Take me home tonight, tonight, tonight, tonight

Cause you're still calling
