Our love has come and gone
But as far as I know
Our love is long gone
I found the truth in it all The lying the cheating the hurting and screaming
Our love is long gone

Like wind, it blew away
And it was washed away
To a place far far away from here
It disappeared Someplace that isn't near
And I only have fear
For what is left of us
You and me
our love is long gone
and I cant think or sleep

can it ever be again my heart is aching with pain I dont want that to maintain but I thought we connected but our love is long gone from here
