The day is long
The flight and song
But I don't even listen

The bluebird hides
A piece of night
I don't even try

((The adoption counselor is in the hall. She's talking to your parents))

Every momma gone missing
Every papa gone mad

I'll take a chance
It's not romance
But something more important

So give me wings
And let me sing
It's all been done before

For any girl that's unhappy
For any boy that is bad
Every momma gone missing
Oooh, every father gone mad
