You're gone
And I'm still here
I cannot see you and I'm choked with fear
Feels like I'm in a deep freeze
I'm longing for you to thaw me out

I'm holding on
I'm holding on to elusive you
Reclusive me
I'm holding on
I'm holding on
An exclusive you
An intrusive me

You're gone
And I'm STILL here
Looking through watery eyes
I cannot see
I find myself waking up with chills
I'm having trouble determining what's real

CHORUS
Find myself calling out your name
In my addiction I am drawn to your game
When your out of reach your space remains
Forgetting you're face
So I pretend...
