box of sunshine, bottle of rain fistful of wind from a west-texas plain tell me you want it, baby, that's all you've gotta do I'll do anything for you

I'd walk the Mississippi, I'd drown in your kiss catch a star in a mason jar, so you could make your wish whatever that may be, baby, I'll make it come true
I'll do anything for you

CHORUS

You are the reason I live my religion,
the air that I breathe, you're that deep in me
and I'll give you my heart and my soul, there's no fire I wouldn't walk through
I'll do anything for you

I'd call on the nightingale to write you a song I'll sing you to sleep, baby, and I'll wake you at dawn I'll wrap you in sweet dreams the whole night through I'll do anything for you

CHORUS

You are the reason I live my religion,
the air that I breathe, you're that deep in me
and I'll give you my heart and my soul,
there's no fire I wouldn't walk through
I'll do anything for you

In the shadows of the last sunset, I'll bargain with God and say, take me instead after all baby it's the least I can do
I'll do anything for you
I'd do anything for you
