hey girl, i betcha, there's someone out to get you you'll find him anywhere, on a bus, in a bar, in a grocery store
he'll say, "excuse me, haven't i seen you somewhere before?"

(chorus)
rap-a-rap-a-rap, they call him the rapper rap, rap, rap, know what he's after so he starts his rappin, hopin somethin will happen he'll say he needs you, a companion, a girl he can talk to he's made up his mind, he needs someone to sock it to

(chorus)

He's made an impression, so he makes a suggestion come up to my place, for some coffee, or tea, or me he's got you where he wants you, girl you better face reality

(chorus)

rap, rap, rap, call him the rapper
