For the return from my past
I feel like this could be my last
I know a second I should have earned for the lesson I have learned.
Right now It's my choice
It's my life or my voice
I know It's not fair
But there's no way there's a care
If I had a chance to say
I pick both anyway
But It's who I am right now
And this is how it's going down
I know I did my part
But now I don't want my life to tear apart
Because It's gonna break my heart
And I should have known

I need a chance to earn
It's a lesson I have learned
I call it a lesson learned...
