Verse 1:

So many heartbreaks
How much more can I take
Break-ups, make-ups
How many of you can relate
It's not fair
No one cares
Who I am, and what's wrong with me
I've been stressed too much
It's more than just reality
Neglection, unattraction
Have any of you felt this way
Ugly, pretty.
These traits are not the same
Oh, people, people
Please don't let them bring you down
Fantasize about the world
And dream that you're out of this town

Chorus:

Let go of your fears
No time for the tears
Don't let them put you down
It's OK, cause their the clowns.
You are your own person
Why can't they just let us be
We won't back down, no no
Let's face our enemies
Don't be lost in your own world
Lost in your world
Don't be lost in your own world
No, no.
Don't be lost in your own world

Verse 2:

Blue skies, sunshine
Can we have that in our lives?
No more gray skies
Sick and tired of all this strife
Bad days, good days
We have them all the time

So what if we're gay or straight
Others can suit that just fine
Don't be afraid
You don't have to worry at all
No more hostage
Sick and tired of these cold brick walls
Just do the right thing
Don't be afraid to say what you choose
It's us against the world.
It doesn't matter if we win or lose

Chorus:

Let go of your fears
No time for the tears
Don't let them put you down
It's OK, cause their the clowns.
You are your own person
Why can't they just let us be
We won't back down, no no
Let's face our enemies
Don't be lost in your own world
Lost in your world
Don't be lost in your own world
No, no.
Don't be lost in your own world

Bridge:

We'll be in a better place someday
Just be patient, I know we're gonna be OK.
Be proud of yourself
Don't listen to anyone else
Because we can make it all the way

Chorus:

Let go of your fears
No time for the tears
Don't let them put you down
It's OK, cause their the clowns.
You are your own person
Why can't they just let us be
We won't back down, no no
Let's face our enemies
Don't be lost in your own world
Lost in your world
Don't be lost in your own world
No, no.
Don't be lost in your own world
