The skies are always gray
She always walks alone
Without anyone to hold
We first met at the otherside
Right down the shore
She tells me that I'm the one she adore
I used to be a loser
But now I'm not
I would love for you to come into my life

Chorus
I can climb up mountains
I can walk down the trail
I can go the distance
But I will never fail
I can find a way to get to you
I just know I can get there
I can go the distance
And I will see you there

I wrote a letter to you
And soon hope that you will get it
If I didn't go away
I'll remember to say it
Time became to be still
I had time to walk up the hill
To see you
And say that I need you
I used to be a loser
But now I'm not
I would love for you to come into my life

Chorus
I can climb up mountains
I can walk down the trail
I can go the distance
But I will never fail
I can find a way to get to you
I just know I can get there
I can go the distance
And I will see you there

I'm thinking about you more and more
I'm trying to say that I love you
But time just don't care about us anymore
When people make rumors about me and someone else
I'll go crazy because you know I will never be like that Unless you fall for that

Chorus

I can climb up mountains
But I will never fail
I just know I can get there
And I will see you there 2x

The skies are always gray
Without anyone to hold...
