Word up!

Get ready to rock
Get ready to see a different me
Where's the guitars
Need the amplifiers and the bass drum beat
I'm ready to start the show
Let's start the rodeo
You and I just can't emancipate
The day has just begun
So go on let's have some fun
Let's start a rock band come on

The orchestra is under construction
We got our own show
You're invited for some rock and roll
Get ready to rock
I'm in static shock
Take it to the ground
Best in downtown
Get ready to rock
So in static shock
We're on our way
On our way to the top!

Blow the violin and the percussions out the way
Time for some real music
Time for some trunk
Remember that I'm different
Than the way it used to be
It doesn't matter what race
You got great taste
So I'm in static shock
Let's get ready to rock!

The orchestra is under construction
We got our own show
You're invited for some rock and roll
Get ready to rock
I'm in static shock
Take it to the ground

Best in downtown
Get ready to rock
So in static shock
We're on our way
On our way to the top!
